Strengthening US Occupation will Not Bring Peace, Rather its Ejection Will Pakistan's Political and Military Leadership is Working to Prevent US Defeat at the Hands of the Afghan Mujahideen

After the meeting of US Deputy Assistant Secretary at the State Department's Bureau of South and Central Asian Affairs Ambassador Alice Wells with the Army Chief Gen Qamar Bajwa at the General Headquarters, the ISPR stated that, "Both reaffirmed the commitment towards the common goal of peace and stability in the region and discussed measures towards that end. Both also agreed on continued engagement at multiple levels." Hizb ut Tahrir/ Wilayah Pakistan rejects Alice Wells visit and assurances granted to her by Pakistani authorities, because they are against the interests of the Muslims of Pakistan and Afghanistan.

The US Assistant Secretary of State visited Islamabad after visiting Kabul. During her visit to Kabul, Wells said that Taliban's refusal to join the political process was "unacceptable". She had further accused the "Taliban ...who are not residing in Afghanistan" of being an obstacle to the peace talks. This statement clearly shows that America is deeply concerned that the Afghan Mujahideen have rejected any talks before the complete withdrawal of US forces. Moreover, despite severe political and military pressure employed by the US, they have increased their attacks on the crusaders as well. The US is clearly exhausted and Pakistan's political and military leadership must help their Afghan Muslim brothers, so that America withdraws completely from Afghanistan, like Soviet Russia before it. However, instead, the political and military leadership is exhausting every effort to prevent certain US defeat. Only last month, the military leadership reaffirmed its commitment to US success. Is American success in Afghanistan not against Pakistan's interest? How is it so when even the political and military leadership have stated that India is using Afghan soil against Pakistan? Is it not clear that America does not care for Pakistan's security concerns and ensures the undermining of its security?

America is now like an aging wild beast which has lost its ability to hunt to feed itself, so relies on others to extend its life. Without the help of Pakistan's political and military leadership, America could neither have attacked Afghanistan, nor occupied it, nor fight such a long war. Moreover, today when the US needs a political solution to sustain its occupation, it is again looking towards the political and military leadership of Pakistan. In reality Pakistan can easily determine the regional dynamics, not America. If today Pakistan had a sincere leadership, it would not have been a difficult task to expel the US. Hizb ut Tahrir / Wilayah Pakistan asks the sincere Muslims amongst the armed forces of Pakistan to seize the treacherous leadership and grant Nusrrah to Hizb ut Tahrir for re-establishing Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood in Pakistan. Only then will a Khaleefah Rashid direct the armed forces and sincere Mujahideen to compel the US to race away from our region, with its tail between its legs. And this deed is not difficult to accomplish with the Help of Allah (swt).

"Verily, We will indeed make victorious Our Messengers and those who believe in this world's life and on the Day when the witnesses will stand forth." [Ghafir: 51]
