The Correct Revolution Does Not Mean Changing the Rulers, it Means Changing the Regime and Establishing the System of Islam

(Translated)

The Houthis in Sana'a and the areas of their control celebrate the 21 September Revolution in its fourth anniversary, the alleged revolution they took against the prescription decided by the government of accord, led by Prime Minister Basindawa in 2014. But this alleged revolution was only a chapter of the Anglo-American conflict in Yemen as its predecessor, the 26 September Revolution in 1962, which America stood by and recognized it and supported the nascent republican regime through Gamal Abdel Nasser. Whereas Britain repulsed the revolution because it sought to get it out of Aden and accordingly supported the monarchists, headed by Imam Muhammad al-Badr against the republicans and employed the Saudi clan to support him; as the war between the monarchy and the republicans lasted for nearly seven years.

Today, the scales of agency have changed as the Houthis - the descendants of the kings - have come into the lap of Iran to become America's new agents. They have raised the slogan of dropping the prescription proposed by the World Bank to be exploited by the Houthis to seize power in Yemen and to liquidate and expel British agents from it. This international conflict between America and Britain has put Yemen in the turmoil of war that has been going on for four years. The war which caused the loss of thousands of innocent-lives, starving millions of them, destroying infrastructure, discontinuing salaries, spreading fatal diseases, disrupting basic services, lack of oil derivatives, high Prices, and the collapse of the Yemeni rial and other disasters and crises...

America aimed at giving the green light to Saudi Arabia in waging war in Yemen to portray the Houthis as victims after they were in the eyes of the world and internally the oppressors. It (America) worked to promote this victimized portrayal whether through its solution initiatives or through its United Nations and sought to save them through this war from the conspiracies of the Britain's agents on them and end their influence completely. However, despite that, it wants to limit Iran's role in the region and give Saudi Arabia a role in the Yemeni file to ensure that the Houthis have a share of power that exceeds their size on the ground. (While Britain is working to preserve its remaining influence in Yemen by excluding the Houthis and reducing their control where possible, and it implements this through the UAE, its agent Hadi and its other local agents inside Yemen.

The Houthis did not announce the objectives of their revolution contrary to the objectives of the revolution of 1962, but the people who were loyal to the English were replaced by people within them without changing the regime as a system. They follow the line of the Iranian Khomeini revolution, which severed Britain's political influence from Iran, replaced it with the American influence and established a republican system derived from the French Revolution completely far from the system of Islam. And they continue to mislead their followers in the name of the Quranic March, so is the republican system part of the Quranic march?! What is wrong with you, how do you judge?!

O People of Yemen:

How long will these conflicting people continue to deceive you and burn you in their wars in service for their masters, the Kafir colonizers of the great powers? The real revolution is the revolution that uproots the system and brings in the correct system. And there is no correct system on earth other than Islam, which today we invite you to establish its state, the Khilafah (Caliphate) Rashidah State on the method of the Prophethood, on the ruins of this republican system, not only to change the people and keep the republican system which is derived from Western civilization. For the republican system is not from Islam in anyway, and it is more than odd to see those who raise one of their hands chanting Death to America – the supporter of the republics in the world – while they take its civilization and culture with the other hand, where the ignorant considers them as martyrs of the fight whereas they are only seizures of inattention and astray!

Let the people of Yemen know with certainty that nothing will bring them out of their miserable lives, wars, and regional, sectarian and racial strife, but the state of Islam; the Khilafah (Caliphate) Rashidah State on the method of the Prophethood, which applies Islam and implements its fair and enlightened judgments that address human problems as a human being regardless of religion, color and race. To this we invite you; it is the satisfaction of your Lord and your happiness in this World and the Hereafter...
