Britain Seeks to Expel Saudi Arabia from South of Yemen and will Keep the United Arab Emirates

(Translated)

The Daily Al-Thawra Newspaper that is issued in Yemen quoted on Saturday 07/09/2019 from the British Independent Newspaper a report from Al-Mahra Governorate in south of Yemen, which consisted of warning Saudi Arabia from continuing to have its military forces in Al-Mahra Governorate, because that could lead to war and confrontation between her and the UAE military forces that exist in Al-Mahra.

The existence of Al-Saud's forces in Al-Mahra has disturbed Oman, as the Strategic Dr. Abdullah Al-Ghilani from Muscat has said: Surely Al-Mahra was "Sultanate Oman's backyard, we have greatly developed the infrastructure, and we have strong political relationships". Al-Mahra is considered Oman's backyard because it's adjacent to it, and it has done much work there silently through Al-Mahra's tribes that are loyal to them, and it has pushed it to confront Al-Saud's forces there, and at the same time Oman welcomes Al-Nahyan in Al-Mahra, and considers it a substitute.

Britain who stands behind UAE has sent its message to America who in turn stands behind Al-Saud rulers, after Britain sensed that the government system of Al-Saud took the chance of what occurs between Hadi and the transitional council, so it sent additional military reinforcements to Al-Mahra estimated by 1500 militants next to its existing forces in Al-Ghaydha Airport. Elizabeth Kindle, a lecturer in Oxford University, said: "Surely the Saudi military fingerprint in Al-Mahra would prevent UAE from getting any part from the south."

From this we can see that not only Al-Saud rulers have passed the oil tube through Nashton Port on Al-Mahra beach south of Yemen, but were greedy to expand in the southern lands of Yemen. Through this you discover the situation and the reality of the relationship between Al-Saud's system and Al-Nahyan's system the key players in the coalition group that is fighting against the Houthis in Yemen.

The UAE has participated to be the preserver and conservative of Britain's interests in Yemen. At the same time Salman and his son are playing the same role for the sake of America, they both accept their orders and implement their plans, without deviation or apprehension.

As for the people of Yemen who have surrendered their matter to one of the international conflicting parties, expose their lands to be torn since its far from the true path and from following it, so they have no strength or power except from Allah if they obey Him (swt) and face towards Him (swt) and they took from Islam an ideology to be implemented under the shade of Khilafah Rashida (righteous Caliphate) state upon the method of the Prophethood as it is the only way to survive from what they find and suffer.
